

Patients name: _____

Bed location: _____

(For example: Room 42, Bed C/3)

Always read the user manual before using the product!
Some of our products are also marked with what side that is supposed to be up.

The correct patient combination:

| | | | | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| <input type="checkbox"/> This product is used for this patient.  Mattress cover with barrier layer. Placed on the top of the mattress. | <input type="checkbox"/> This product is used for this patient.  Sliding sheet. Satin for the centre section and non-slip material for the side sections. Slide in the direction of the pattern. | <input type="checkbox"/> This product is used for this patient.  Sliding sheet + draw sheet. Facilitates turning and reduces the heat from the satin of the sliding sheet. Slide in the direction of the pattern. | <input type="checkbox"/> This product is used for this patient.  Sliding sheet + sliding draw sheet. Both the sheets have sliding surfaces on both the bottom and the top. Slide in the direction of the pattern. | <input type="checkbox"/> This product is used for this patient.  Incontinence pad: Ad a incontinence pad between the client and the sliding sheet combination if required. |
| Insert product name/article number: | Insert product name/article number: | Insert product name/article number: | Insert product name/article number: | Insert product name/article number: |
| | | | | |
| | | | | |
| | | | | |
| Other instructions: | | | | |
| | | | | |

To view our entire product range, instructions videos and tips on how to best use the product, visit handicare.com